- 22.2 A secret ballot demanded for the election of a person presiding or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately, but any other secret ballot may be conducted at any time before the close of the meeting.

23. SPECIAL AND ORDINARY RESOLUTIONS

- 23.1 A special resolution as defined in the Act. A clause can be included repeating the definition in Section 3 of the Act.
- 23.2 An ordinary resolution is a resolution passed by a simple majority at a general meeting.

24. PROXY

- 24.1 If an (Organisational, Individual, Life) Member proposes to vote by way of proxy then his/her/its duly nominated proxy shall be in the form supplied by the Board of the MCCSA and shall be provided to the Chairperson at the Annual General Meeting or the Special General Meeting prior to the commencement of the said meeting.
- 24.2 Each (Organisational, Individual, Life) Member are entitled to hold a proxy on behalf of only one other Member.

25. MINUTES

- 25.1 Proper minutes of all proceedings of general meetings of the MCCSA and of meetings of the Board, shall be entered within one month after the relevant meeting in minute books or electronic formats kept for the purpose.
- 25.2 The minutes kept pursuant to this rule must be confirmed by the members of the MCCSA or the Board members (as relevant) at a subsequent meeting.
- 25.3 The minutes kept pursuant to this rule shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings took place or by the Chairperson of the next succeeding meeting at which the minutes are confirmed.

- 25.4 Where minutes are entered and signed they shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that the meeting was convened and duly held, that all proceedings held at the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly held, and that all appointments made at a meeting shall be deemed to be valid.

26. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 26.1 The dispute resolution procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these Rules between:
- A Member and another Member
 - A Member and the MCCA
- 26.2 The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
- 26.3 If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting the parties may choose to meet and discuss the dispute before an independent third person agreed to by the parties.
- 26.4 In this rule 'Member' includes any person or Organisation that has been a Member for not more than six months before the dispute occurred. Section 40 of the Act provides that where the Board exercises any power of adjudication in relation to a dispute between the members, or a dispute between itself and members of the MCCA, the Rules of natural justice must be observed.

Section 61 of the Act provides that an application to the Court for an order under the section may be made by a member of an incorporated association or by a former member expelled from the association (provided that the application is made within six months of the expulsion), who believes that the affairs of the association are being conducted in a manner that is oppressive or unreasonable.

27. STAFF
